Luba Gulyaeva graduated from the Vaganova Ballet Academy in the former Leningrad, USSR. At the school she was assistant to A.Y. Vaganova and danced professionally as a soloist with the Kirov Ballet from 1972 to 1979. Since coming to this country she has taught at various schools in the New York area including the American Ballet Theater School during the tenure of Baryshnikov as director and at the School of American Ballet. Ms. Gulyaeva is presently ballet mistress with the New Jersey Ballet and is in great demand as a guest teacher at workshops throughout the country. Artistic Director David Herriott will teach Modern Rep. and Partnering.
